

Broadway Blab!

Year 5 read Floodland! Year five have recently read a wonderful book in English called 'Floodland.' The book was absolutely amazing! I won't spoil the whole story but it's about a little girl called Zoe and she was born in the future (we think!) and in the future, the sea level is rising. The only place that is left is Norwich and it's an island now. Her mum and dad decided to escape and Zoe is left alone. Read the book to find out what happens. I'd recommend it! By Allana Fernandez.

The Boy In The Dress. Class 10 have enjoyed reading this fantastic book written by David Walliams. We've even watched the programme too! Both the book and the film were fantastic. What should we read next? By Olivia Stockton

On the 20th of October 2016, Year 6 were visited by Balfour Beatty in the "I built that!" project. In this project we learned what it was like to be an engineer and architect. We built a little city in our classroom then set it all out on the stage. It looks awesome even if I do say so myself! By Amelia Parker.

Year 6 mathematicians! Some very intelligent mathematicians from Year 6 have spent time developing their math skills, with one day being in the glorious Centre For Life. Here they participated in various math related puzzles and on the following Wednesday they competed in the first round of the 'National Young Mathematician' award. They took part in everything they could and really tried their best. Well done Year 6. By Jaydn Conlon.

Time for a giggle...

Christmas Jumper Day On Christmas jumper day everyone is told to wear their own Christmas jumpers (from home of course). Everyone loves Christmas jumper day! Instead of donating money this year we donated tins of soup that went to support the Salvation Army. They were thrilled with our donations so thank you for your support. Some of the jumpers (and costumes) were really funny! What will people think of for next year? By Jodie Wang and Ellie Cockayne

Competition Winners. Recently, a competition was held in school set by Mrs Anderson and Mrs Giles. You had to write a poem about a landmark in Sunderland. Everyone enjoyed it! There was over 100 entries! The winners were revealed on Thursday 1st December and there were 12 winners in total. The lucky winners have won a trip to visit some of the landmarks they have written about and to finish the day they are going to have a delicious meal at the scrumptious Italian kitchen. Well done again to all 12 winners your poems were amazing. By Jasmine Conlon.

Class 9's Smile Project. Here in 'Anderland', Mrs Anderson has set up a project for the whole school and that project is to do something to somebody to make them smile. She has set up a little club where members of Class 9 will out and about on trips and find ways to make people in the community feel good and smile. Class 9 are so enlightened by the tremendous idea Mrs Anderson has come up with, they have even made posters, poems and lots more. Just because the club is for class 9 does not mean you can't get involved too! Why not put a suggestion in the suggestion box? This will be planted outside the P.E cupboard soon so look out! By Jessica Reynolds.

YOUTUBE! My favourite youtubers are SSundee and Crainer. I don't like it when youtubers only play one game every video. My brother likes Dude Perfect because he thinks the game is awesome. In my opinion, I think he plays bad games. Who do you guys like? By Adam Bramley.

The Railway Children The Railway Children is a book written by E. Nesbit. It is about three children called Roberta, Phyllis and Peter. Their father mysteriously leaves home and travels somewhere, but we don't know where he has gone yet! They have to move house and pretend they are poorer than they are. We think that Peter might steal coal and get into BIG trouble! Read it, you'll like it! By Ellie Cockayne.

HALLOWEEN! As you know, a Halloween disco was held on Friday 28th of October. There were lots of different and terrifying costumes. Everyone had so much fun stuffing their faces with hotdogs and dancing until their legs hurt. There was some spooktacular photos! Broadway's joker, Mr McCabe, got dressed up as a WHOOPIE CUSHION! Miss Smith was Wednesday from the Adams Family too. Another super DISCO! By Jasmine Conlon.

Woodhorn by Amelia Richardson. As a Christmas treat Year 5 visited Woodhorn Mining Museum for a tour and to ice skate. It was a pretty damp day but we were ok because it didn't actually rain. First we got to go on the ice rink (most of us fell over!). Then we went in the cafe for some hot chocolate and biscuits- YUMMY! After lunch we had a look around the old mines and machines, had a train ride and then off we went back to school. What an awesome day!

Swallows and Amazons by Allana Fernandez. This is a movie review about the new film: Swallows and Amazons. I would put it at 4 stars. Here is what it's about and no spoilers- it is a group of children who go out and go to an island, set up camp and even have a little war with the people they meet. If you like adventure, go and see it. If not, well, then, don't! I'd recommend it though!

Children In Need 2016 On the Friday 18th November it was the school's annual Pudsey day where everyone got to wear their own clothes to school. On the afternoon, to celebrate the day, the whole school took part in Mr Scott's amazing danceathon! We danced to Just Dance Classics including Timber and the Gummy Bear! By Olivia Stockton and Jodie Wang.

The HMS Trincomalee. Year six visited the HMS Trincomalee on the 5th of December 2016. It is a beautiful ship located in Hartlepool. It is 200 years old, but still in brilliant shape. It is the only ship in England that stayed afloat of its kind. It was a Royal Navy Ship, which held around 240 men. With its four brilliant floors and top deck, it would be a big miss if you didn't get to see it! By Amelia Parker.

Animal Facts by Lucy C

1. One of the most dangerous animals in the world is called the Box Jellyfish. Its sting is deadly, so you might want to avoid this!
2. Cape Buffaloes are also very aggressive. They weigh 2000 pounds, and can charge up to 40 MPH!
3. The Black Mamba is a thin, black snake that can strike very quickly and chases its victims at incredible speeds!
